Dear Parents:

Franklin Community Middle School is pleased to host you at the 2023 Indiana State School Music Association High School Band and Choir Festival on Friday, April 14th and Saturday, April 15th. Franklin Community Middle School is located at 625 Grizzly Cub Drive in Franklin, Indiana. Parking is located in the south parking lot. Spectators should enter through the main entrance to the building on the west side of the building. The auditorium is located to the right after walking through the entry hallway.

All band and orchestra performances will be located in the main gym. All choir performances will be located in the Auditorium. Please plan ahead and arrive at least ten minutes before the performance time. ONCE A PERFORMANCE HAS BEGUN, NO ONE WILL BE ALLOWED TO ENTER THE PERFORMANCE VENUE. This is an ISSMA rule and will be strictly enforced. No one will be allowed to enter between songs once the group begins performing. Please plan ahead.

For your convenience, restrooms are located in the main hallway between the auditorium and gymnasium. Concessions will be offered in the cafeteria. Please note: No food or drink is permitted in the auditorium. Thank you for your cooperation! There is no charge for admission to hear the students perform. You are also invited to listen to other groups perform if you would like.

Please check with your director for performance times or go to, www.issma.net and see the performance times for the Franklin Community Middle School site.

We look forward to hosting you and hope that your experience at Franklin Community Middle School is a great one!

Sincerely

Lexie Rich
